Dear Parents,

This week we embarked upon the final half term in our existing main school building. You may have been following the progress of the new build on our school website over the past year and a half and hopefully, have been able to see how quickly the building has taken shape. As you can imagine, staff and students alike are all looking forward immensely to moving over and settling into our new school.

Later this term, we will be speaking to all students in assembly to ensure that they understand the changes to movement around the site once we move in, as well as the changes to their timetables and classrooms.

We are understandably keen to ensure that everything is in place to welcome our students back after the Easter break. Moving classrooms to the new building is a huge logistical undertaking and with this in mind, governors have agreed an extraordinary INSET day, on Tuesday, 23 April, in order to facilitate a smooth and efficient transfer. We are sure that you will appreciate the importance of having our learning environments student ready for what is an incredibly exciting start to a new era for our school.

Thank you in advance for your support in this matter. Should you have any queries, please contact school@maghullhigh.com

Yours sincerely,
