

El mundo hispánico: ¡Hola chicos!

Have you ever been to Spain or a Spanish speaking country? Did you know there are 20 countries that have Spanish as their first language? Would you like to find out more about which countries they are?

Perhaps you find this building in Barcelona really interesting. A man called Gaudi designed this unusual cathedral. Do you want to find out what else he designed?

What about typical Spanish tapas. What are they, where did such an idea come from? Have you tried any?

The world's biggest tomato fight takes place every August near Valencia, just for fun! Bull running in the streets and of course, the Day of the Dead in Mexico are just some of the most famous Hispanic festivals.

The rich history of South and Central America might interest you the most. Choose one thing about Spain or any Spanish speaking country that interests you. It might be their football league or their popstars, or food or history. It might be music and dance. You decide. You can find all about it using the internet for more information. You might want to make your own presentation of all the interesting facts you discover. Have fun learning about where your new language is spoken!
